Dear [redacted]

STAT

STAT

I am pleased to confirm arrangements made with Dr. Mitchell of the Defense Intelligence School faculty, for an address to be given by [redacted] of your staff. His remarks concerning the "Responsibilities of the DCI," to be presented in conjunction with our Intelligence Resource Management Course, are scheduled for May 13, 1982 from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

STAT

The class will be composed of 26 military officers and civilians from the four Services and various Department of Defense intelligence agencies. All are cleared for access to TS/SI/SAO information.

Student critiques continually indicate that [redacted] class is one of the most valuable and informative at the School. Your continued cooperation in helping this School educate students whose intelligence capabilities will be an asset to the individual Services and to the intelligence community is deeply appreciated.

STAT

Sincerely,

L. D. BADGETT
Colonel, USAF
Commandant
